Applicable Extract from the Burial Ground regulations:

- Burial rights are purchased at the time of the first burial, usually by a family member. The exclusive right is for 50 years from the date of purchase. The policy of the council is not to permit advance reservation or purchase of burial plots.
- Second or subsequent burials in a grave space can only be carried out with the permission of the burial rights owner. Families must keep the council informed of the current ownership of the burial right if it is transferred or passes by inheritance.
- Ownership of an exclusive right to burial conveys no other legal rights over the grave space, which remains the Council's property.
- Coffin grave spaces generally have room for two coffin burials and a number of caskets of cremated remains. A triple depth grave can accommodate up to three coffin burials. Cremated remains grave spaces have room for two caskets.
- Grave spaces for first burials will be selected by the council in the appropriate site of the burial ground and marked approximately two days before the burial. The policy of the council is normally to allocate the next space in line.
